

Robert Titus

Robert Titus, B.A. is the Director of Public Policy for Autism New Jersey. Bob graduated from Montclair State College magna cum laude, with a major in English and a minor in Classical Studies. Prior to joining ANJ in 2009, Bob was an engineer for Verizon New Jersey for 34 years. He served on the COSAC/ANJ Board from 1987-2005 and from 2008-2009. From 1988 until 2001, Bob was Board President and was chairman of the Executive, Trustees, Nominations, Executive Search, and Public Policy committees during that time. He has a 28-year-old son with autism who resides in a group home supervised by Eden Acres in Mercer County, New Jersey. Bob also serves on the Board of Directors of Princeton Child Development Institute in Princeton, New Jersey.