

Clinical Director

Job Description

The Educational Partnership for Instructing Children (EPIC) is one of the country's premier schools for children with autism and Pervasive Developmental Disorder. EPIC is a non-profit, New Jersey approved, private ABA school in Paramus, serving learners from 3-21 years.

We are seeking a Clinical Director. The position is a permanent, full-time position and will become available on February 10, 2010. Applicant must have 5-7 years minimum experience supervising ABA-based educational and behavioral programming and curriculum development. MA Degree and BCBA are required.

Some of the duties will include:

- Responsible for training of new staff
- Provide progress reviews at least annually of new and existing staff
- Measure Interobserver Agreement to ensure accuracy in data collection procedures
- Review, edit and approve skill acquisition programs for EPIC's standardized curriculum
- Over see Intake Process
- Review IEPs and provide critical feedback for development of student goals
- Work with Clinical Team to develop reinforcement strategies and schedules
- Supervise educational programming of students participating in supported volunteer work/supported employment
- Attend IEP and other relevant meetings with school districts
- Have knowledge of and experience with programs for adults
- Present lectures and training sessions to parents
- Supervise clinical team and classroom teacher home visits
- Conduct a needs assessment and create supplementary services in line with family needs
- Develop transition plan for students as they exit the program
- Present current issues in ABA at weekly staff meetings and distribute pertinent journal articles to staff for their review
- Conduct and develop empirically based research projects; Train and monitor personnel involved in research projects

Please fax your resume and cover letter to (201) 576-0699 or send via email to epicinc@aol.com. Please mail to: EPIC, 238 Farview Avenue, Paramus, NJ 07652.