

Robin Napravnik, Administrative Assistant

Robin previously worked for the Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) as a family service specialist, and as a patient education writer for a healthcare information agency. Prior to joining the agency, Robin was an at-home parent to her daughter and her son, who has Asperger's Disorder. She is a graduate of Rider University and holds a Bachelor's Degree in English, and has completed graduate coursework in Secondary Education at Rider University.