

About Autism New Jersey

Autism New Jersey is New Jersey's leading advocacy and information network for parents of individuals with autism spectrum disorders (ASDs) and the professionals who support them.

New Jersey's Autism Resource

Autism New Jersey diligently works to help improve the lives of individuals with autism, and provide their families with competent and compassionate support. Autism New Jersey is wholly committed to sharing its expertise in autism-related topics with all state residents. Families of young or adult children affected by autism, the professionals who support them, legislators and government officials, media and concerned state residents turn to Autism New Jersey on a daily basis for information, assistance, support, guidance, and education.
